The Sutra of the Recollection of the Noble Three Jewels

I prostrate to the Omniscient One.

Thus, the Buddha, Bhagavat, Tathagata, Arhat, Samyaksambuddha, the Learned and Virtuous One, the Sugata, the Knower of the World, the Charioteer and the Tamer of Beings, the Unsurpassable One, the Teacher of devas and men is the Buddha Bhagavat. The Tathagata is in accord with all merit. He does not waste the roots of virtue. He is completely ornamented with all patience. He is the basis of the treasures of merit. He is adorned with the minor marks. He blossoms with the flowers of the major marks. His activity is timely and appropriate. Seeing him, he is without disharmony. He brings true joy to those who long with faith. His knowledge cannot be overpowered. His strengths cannot be challenged. He is the teacher of all sentient beings. He is the father of Bodhisattvas. He is the king of noble ones. He is the guide of those who journey to the city of nirvana. He possesses immeasurable wisdom. He possesses inconceivable confidence. His speech is completely pure. His melody is pleasing. One never has enough of seeing him. His form is incomparable. He is not stained by the realm of desire. He is not stained by the realm of form. He is not affected by the formless realm. He is completely liberated from suffering. He is completely and utterly liberated from the skandhas. He is not possessed with dhatus. His ayatanas are controlled. He has completely cut the knots. He is completely liberated from extreme torment. He is liberated from craving. He has crossed over the river. He is perfected in all the wisdoms. He abides in the wisdom of the Buddha bhagavats who arise in the past, present, and future. He does not abide in nirvana. He abides in the ultimate perfection. He dwells on the bhumi where he sees all sentient beings. All these are the perfect virtues of the greatness of the Buddha Bhagavat. The holy Dharma is good in the beginning, good in the middle, and good at the end. Its meaning is excellent. Its words are excellent. It is uncorrupted. It is completely perfect and completely pure. It completely purifies. The Bhagavat teaches the Dharma well. It brings complete vision. It is free from sickness. It is always timely. It directs one further. Seeing it fulfills one's purpose. It brings discriminating insight for the wise. The Dharma which is taught by the Bhagavat is revealed properly in the Vinaya. It is renunciation. It causes one to arrive at perfect enlightenment. It is without contradiction. It is pithy. It is trustworthy and puts an end to the journey. as for the Sangha of the great yana, they enter completely. They enter insightfully. They enter straightforwardly. They enter harmoniously. They are worthy of veneration with joined palms. They are worthy of receiving prostration. They are a field of glorious merit. They are completely capable of receiving all gifts. They are an object of generosity. They are a great object of complete generosity.

শু ামুদ্রমান নামুদ্র বি Refuge and Bodhicitta
In the Buddha, the Dharma, and the Supreme Assembly

I take refuge until enlightenment. By the merit of generosity and so forth, May I attain buddhahood for the welfare of all beings.

🏅 ृर्ळर् सेर् स्यापित है। Four Immeasurables

May all sentient beings enjoy happiness and the root of happiness.

May they be free from suffering and the root of suffering.

May they not be separated from the great happiness devoid of suffering.

May they dwell in the great equanimity free from passion, aggression, and prejudice.

Thus have I heard. Once the Blessed One was dwelling in Rajagriha at Vulture Peak Mountain, together with a great gathering of the Sangha of monks and a great gathering of the Sangha of Bodhisattvas. At that time the Blessed One entered the Samadhi that expresses the dharma called "profound Illumination," and at the same time noble Avalokiteshvara, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva, while practicing the profound prajnaparamita, saw in this way: he saw the five skandhas to be empty of nature. then through the power of the Buddha, venerable Shariputra said to noble Avalokiteshvara, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva, "How should a son or daughter of noble family train, who wishes to practice the profound prajnaparamita?"
addressed in this way, noble Avalokiteshvara, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva, said to venerable Shariputra, "O Shariputra, a son or daughter of noble family who wishes to practice the profound prajnaparamita should see in this way: seeing the five skandhas to be empty of nature. Form is emptiness; emptiness also is form. Emptiness is no other than form; form is no other than emptiness. In the same way, feeling, perception, formation and consciousness are emptiness. Thus, Shariputra, all dharmas are emptiness. There are characteristics. There is no birth and no cessation. There is no impurity and no purity. There is no decrease and no increase. Therefore, Shariputra, in emptiness, there is no form, no feeling, no perception, no formation, no consciousness; no eye, no ear, no nose, no tongue, no body, no mind; no appearance, no sound, no smell, no taste, no touch, no dharmas; no eye dhatu up to no mind dhatu, no dhatu of dharmas, no mind consciousness dhatu; no ignorance, no end of ignorance up to no old age and death, no end of old age and death; no suffering, no origin of suffering, no cessation of suffering, no path, no wisdom, no attainment and no nonattainment. Therefore, Shariputra, since the Bodhisattvas have no attainment, they abide by means of prajnaparamita. Since there is no obscuration of mind, there is no fear. They transcend falsity and attain complete nirvana. All the buddhas of the three times, by means of prajnaparamita, fully awaken to unsurpassable, true, complete enlightenment. Therefore, the great mantra of prajnaparamita, the mantra of great insight, the unsurpassed mantra, the unequaled mantra, the mantra that calms all suffering should be known as truth, since there is no deception. The prajnaparamita mantra is said in the way:

OM GATE GATE PARAGATE PARASAMGATE BODHI SVAHA

Thus, Shariputra, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva should train in the profound prajnaparamita."

Then the Blessed One arose from the Samadhi and praised noble Avalokiteshvara, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva, saying, "Good, good, O son of noble family; thus it is, O son of noble family, thus it is. One should practice the profound prajnaparamita just as you have taught and all the tathagatas will rejoice." When the Blessed One had said this, venerable Shariputra and noble Avalokiteshvara, the Bodhisattva Mahasattva, the whole assembly and the world with its gods, humans, asuras and gandharvas rejoiced and praised the words of the Blessed One.

WHAT IS THE BUDDHIST PHILOSOPHY OF MEDITATION?

With the Buddhist philosophy of meditation, we first learn the techniques that come from the Buddha's teaching. This comes through the lineage of the Buddha. Buddha said to examine the teachings and determine the true meaning of your meditation.

Buddha said in Sūtras: "Monks and Learned Ones; Just as gold is burnt, cut and rubbed, examine my words carefully and do not accept them simply out of respect. I have shown you the methods that lead to liberation, but you should know that liberation depends upon yourself."

Dedication of Merit

All Virtue that I have accumulated in all of my lives up to this moment, including the merit generated by this practice, I offer to the well-being of all sentient beings. May disease, hunger, war and suffering diminish for all sentient beings, and may their wisdom and compassion increase in this and in future lives. May I clearly realize that all experiences are insubstantial like the tissue of dreams during night-time and immediately awake to realize the manifestation of pure wisdom in the arising of all the phenomena. May I quickly achieve enlightenment in order to work unceasingly for the liberation of all beings.

Lotus, born from the stainless lotus, the Supreme Deity, Padmasambhava of the Lotus family. Outside pure. Inside pure. Just like the bud of a lotus. Like that, may you serve the teachings of the Lotus Born, Padmasambdhava.

The translation of the sadhana was undertaken by the Dharma students of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Homage to the yidam deities! O fortunate noble disciples of the future: if you seek refuge in me, Orgyen, go to a secluded place and think about the weariness of impermanence and the sorrow of samsara. This is very important. Entrust yourself entirely to me – body, heart, and spirit. Consider all sources of hope and refuge complete within me, Orgyen, and know that I am completely aware of all your joys, sorrows, and hopes. Do not beseech me with offerings and praise. Set aside accumulations. Instead, with devoted body, speech, and mind, pray with this seven line supplication:

Continue praying until your intense yearning brings tears to your eyes. If you become overwhelmed by faith, take a good breath and settle lucidly, gazing clearly and openly without distraction. Is there any need to say that I will protect those disciples who pray like this? They will become the children of the victorious ones of the three times. Their mind will attain the supreme empowerment of self-arising awareness. Their samadhi will become powerful and stable, and pristine awareness will expand. They will be ripened by supreme self-arising blessings and be able to relieve the suffering of others. As they change, the perceptions other have of them will change at the same time. Thus they will accomplish Buddha activity and perfect all spiritual qualities. In the greatness of dharmakaya, may my heart-sons and heart-daughters encounter this supreme method of ripening and liberation. In particular, because this seven line supplication, which bestows my blessings is most profound, I advise you to keep this rediscovered heart-terma innermost. May it meet with the intelligent and compassionate Chokyi Wangchuk.

DEDICATION OF MERIT

All virtue that I have accumulated in all of my lives up to this moment, including the merit generated by this practice, I offer to the well-being of all sentient beings. May disease, hunger, war and suffering diminish for all sentient beings, and may their wisdom and compassion increase in this and in future lives. May I clearly realize that all experiences are insubstantial like the tissue of dreams during night-time and immediately awake to realize the manifestation of pure wisdom in the arising of all phenomena. May I quickly achieve enlightenment in order to work unceasingly for the liberation of all beings.

Lotus, born from a stainless lotus,

the Supreme Deity, Padmasambhava of the Lotus Family.

Outside pure. Inside pure. Just like the bud of a lotus.

Like that, may you serve the teachings of the Lotus Born, Padmasambhava.

TEN PA DZIN PIE KHEBU NAM KU TSEGYLTSEN TEN GYUR CHIG

may those who uphold the teachings of the Buddha firmly plant the victory banner of longevity.

(This was written by the omniscient master Longchenpa.)

Outside pure. Inside pure.

Just like the bud of a lotus.

Like that, may you serve the teachings of the Lotus Born, Padmasambhava.

क्ष अपन्य सुन्य क्रिया नासुस्य देटा खुना स के।

KHEN LOB CHHO SUM RING LUK CHHE

DZAM LING SA SUM KHYAB PAR P'HEL

spread so that it pervades the world and the three realms.

वर्चे क्रुन् अर्द्धवा वाशुअ खूट च दरा। DRO GYU CHHOK SUM NANG WA DANG

May the experience of sentient beings appear to them as the Three Jewels,

भ्र. यचका र्या या श्री भारती, जायी भारती या

MI DRAL DU SUM GE LEK SHOK

remaining inseparable throughout the three times, bringing well-being and auspicious fulfillments.
